B) SUMMARY:

Everest Base Camp trek is one of the most famous trek in the Khumbu region of Mt. Everest which takes you into the heart of the Nepalese Himalaya, with awe-inspiring views of the world's highest and most beautiful mountains. Everest Base Camp Trekking takes you through lush valleys with abundant flora and fauna, past friendly Sherpa villages and Sherpa monasteries. You trek up Kala Patthar for a magnificent view of Mt. Everest, Mt.Lhotse, Mt.Nuptse and the Khumbu ice fall and glacier. The base camp is the starting point for many of the expeditions to take on the summit. Our itineraries are carefully designed to ensure you have adequate time to acclimatise comfortably, thereby enjoying the trekking experience to the full. The Everest Base Camp trek is a classic trek which follows in the footsteps of Hillary & Tenzing and ends with an ascent of Kala Patthar for superb views of Mt.Everest. This trek starts with an exhilarating 35 minute mountain flight from Kathmandu into the airstrip at Lukla. From here we trek slowly upwards to the Sherpa capital of Namche Bazaar(a junction for trekkers), following the valley of the Dudh Kosi river. It is not long before we glimpse our first view of Mt.Everest as it peeks above the Mt.Lhotse-Nuptse ridge. At this point it is still many days walk away, but with careful acclimatization it is not long before we find ourselves high up in the heart of the Khumbu region. We visit Tengboche Sherpa monastery en route before continuing on to our destination an ascent of Kala Patthar, a rocky outcrop to the west of Everest. This vantage point gives fantastic views of the Ice Fall and South Col as well as the immense south-west face of Mt.Everest which was first climbed in 1975 by Chris Bonington's team. This is truly a classic trek, which undoubtedly gives one of the best mountain views in the world. Accommodation and food is provided in the local lodges for the tea house trek.
